Professional stand-up comedian Robin Fox spent 17 years as a New Jersey stay-at-home mom. This “Real Housewife” was the funniest lady at the PTO - but one day, decided to move her act to the stage, and has had audiences roaring ever since. For the past 10 years, Robin Fox has talked about her 27-year marriage, her children, her aging parents, and life in suburbia.

Robin can be seen at regularly at Gotham Comedy Club and Broadway Comedy Club. She has performed in NYC at Comix, Caroline’s, Stand Up NY, The Laugh Factory, Ha, NY Comedy Club and Eastville Comedy Club. She is a regular performer at Danny Aiello’s club in Hoboken, Danny’s Upstairs. She is the 2021 Ladies of Laughter winner and the 2010 Grand Prize winner of the 11th Annual Gilda’s Club Laugh-off. She was Host of the 2011 Lucie Awards at Lincoln Center, and has been a warm-up comedian for “Puppetry Of the Penis” Off-Broadway.

Robin rose through the comedy ranks very quickly and has been a finalist at several prestigious comedy contests and festivals including Philly’s “Funniest Comedian” contest, and Baltimore’s “Funniest.” She has appeared on Nickelodeon’s Standup Series “Nick Mom Night Out!”, on We Entertainment network, and on Lifetime TV. Robin was a “Hot Topic” on ABC’s “The View.” She previously performed at the Firehouse Stage on Valentine's Day 2019.
